...RESPONDENT

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE V.ESWARAIAH

WRIT PETITION NO.559 of 2006

ORDER:

The counsel for the petitioners stated that the petitioners filed an anticipatory bail application in an unregistered crime number of Tanuku Town Police Station in Crl.M.P.No.2512 of 2005 on the file of the II Additional Sessions Judge, West Godavari District at Eluru apprehending their arrest as their daughter-in-law may give complaint against them for the offence punishable under Section 498-A of the Indian Penal Code. The learned Sessions Judge dismissed the said application as per the order dated 02.01.2006 on the ground that no case is pending and no report is filed against the petitioners. It is now stated that the respondent is illegally interfering with the personal life of the petitioners and harassing them at the instance of their daughter-in-law.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, the Writ Petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent not to interfere with the personal life of the petitioners unless and until a report from the daughter-in-law of the petitioners or from any other person is received that they have committed a cognizable offence. No costs.
